

D Program Observations

Purpose:

- To gain understanding of space needs, qualities, size, activities and tools needed for particular library programs.

Description:

The consultant team observes, sketches, and takes notes at a library program or at a program in the community.

Example Photos:

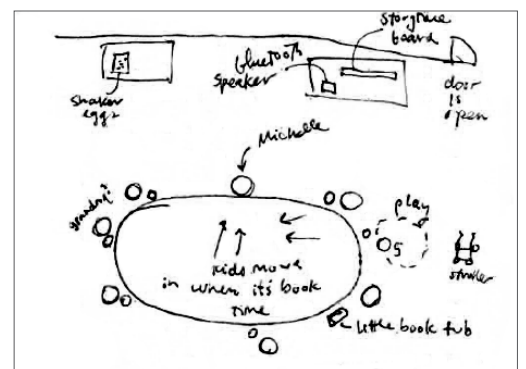

Kids at the library participating in a program called Eco Studio at the Pleasant Hill Library in California.

This Results in:

- Understanding of space needs, qualities, size, activities and tools needed for particular library programs.
